IN THE ADMINISTRATIVE REVIEW TRIBUNAL

BRISBANE REGISTRY

GENERAL DIVISION

ART Nos. 2023/3361, 2023/3363 and 2023/4494

MINUTE OF PROPOSED DIRECTIONS

Interlocutory Hearing – 20 March 2026

1. Noting that Mrs Vida Reid withdraws her application for a stay of proceedings.
2. ART No. 2023/3363 be case managed independently of ART No. 2023/3361 and not be delayed by interlocutory issues arising in that matter.
3. The Respondent produce in ART No. 2023/3363 within 21 days the primary documents identified in the Applicant's short directions submissions, including the original reasons, briefing notes, tactical report, Jan Nuttall material, PRODA attribution records, Cassandra Burke annexures, and the internal review new-information package.
4. Mr Simon Reid have leave to file supplementary submissions or an amended Statement of Facts, Issues and Contentions within 28 days after production in ART No. 2023/3363.
5. The parties in ART No. 2023/3363 file and serve witness statements within 42 days after compliance with the production order.
6. ART No. 2023/3361 be severed from ART Nos. 2023/3363 and 2023/4494, or alternatively separately programmed.
7. The Respondent file and serve in ART No. 2023/3361 within 21 days the affidavit and targeted production identified in Mrs Vida Reid's short directions submissions.
8. Mrs Vida Reid have leave to file a Statement of Facts, Issues and Contentions or supplementary submissions within 42 days after receipt of production in ART No. 2023/3361.
9. A Persian/Farsi interpreter be made available for all future hearings involving Mrs Vida Reid, as previously requested.
10. ART No. 2023/4494 remain on foot and not be treated as moot, but be deferred and relisted for further case management after the Tribunal has materially progressed or heard ART Nos. 2023/3363 and 2023/3361.
11. The Tribunal allocate the earliest available substantive hearing dates for ART No. 2023/3363 and, subject to the above directions, ART No. 2023/3361.