Dear Mr Reid

ART Applications – Vida REID and Commissioner of the NDIS Quality and Safeguards Commission (ART no. 2023/3361); Simon REID and Commissioner of the NDIS Quality and Safeguards Commission (ART no.2023/3363); Forward Focussed Group Pty Ltd (FFG) and Commissioner of the NDIS Quality and Safeguards Commission (ART no.2023/4494)

We refer to:

- your email dated 21 April 2026 in the proceedings referred to above; and
- the Tribunal's correspondence dated 22 April 2026.

As you are aware, we previously filed submissions in this matter on 19 March 2026 in which we foreshadowed the filing of an updated tribunal bundle subject to the Tribunal resolving the severance applications proposed by you, Mrs Reid and FFG. In those submissions, we proposed timetabling orders which would have seen this bundle filed with the Tribunal by no later than 10 April 2026. That proposal was provided on the assumption that the severance applications would be dealt with and that timetabling orders would be made at the case management hearing on 20 March 2026, which did not eventuate.

As confirmed by the Tribunal in its 22 April 2026 email, no decision has yet been made in relation to the severance applications. Our intention is still to provide the Tribunal with a revised tender bundle once ordered to do so by the Tribunal.

In the circumstances, however, we do not object to providing copies to you of the additional documents which were inadvertently omitted from the original tribunal bundle and which we expect to be added to the revised tribunal bundle in due course.

On that basis, we will shortly provide you with copies of the following documents:

1. Notice and Statement of Reasons for the original banning order against Simon Reid;

2. Briefing note EC22-002103 (with attachments numbered 2a to 2zm);
3. Briefing note EC22-002429 (with attachments numbered 3a to 3d);
4. Briefing note EC22-002521 (with attachments numbered 4a to 4j); and
5. Statement of Cassandra Burke dated 16 February 2023 with attachments.

The majority of the attachments to briefing notes EC22-002103, EC22-002429 and EC22-002521 were previously included in the original tender bundle and have been available to you for some time. However, we have reproduced them in this bundle so that you can see exactly which documents were attached to the briefing notes relating to you personally. Attachment N to briefing note EC22-002103, which consists of 33 witness statements (all of which were previously produced in the original tribunal bundle), also forms part of briefing note EC22-002521, but has only been included once to avoid excessive duplication.

For the avoidance of doubt, the letters from Tom & Co to our client dated 22 November 2022, 30 November 2022 and 7 December 2022 (as referred to in our submissions of 19 March 2026) are included as attachments to the briefing notes.

The following documents have not been provided at this time:

1. Attachments A, B, C, D, E, F, G and Q to EC22-002103 – These documents relate solely to companies which are unrelated to this proceeding and have not been produced on the basis that they have no relevance to the banning order which was issued against you.
2. Attachment O to EC22-002103 and Attachment G to EC22-002521 – These documents have been produced separately to the Tribunal. Enclosed with this letter is a copy of an application to the Tribunal seeking non-disclosure orders over the documents under section 70(2) of the Administrative Review Tribunal Act 2024 (Cth) on the basis that the documents are subject to valid claims of legal professional privilege. We invite you to make any submissions to the Tribunal you wish to make on this application by way of return correspondence.
3. Attachment P to EC22-002103 – This document is an internal email chain between employees of the Commission which we have assessed as not being relevant to the issues in dispute in this matter.
4. Attachment J to EC22-002103 and Attachment J to EC022-002521 – These are copies of the document “Tactical Intelligence Report – Project Archer” dated 18 August 2022. Our client relies on the non-disclosure and non-publication orders of the Tribunal dated 26 July 2024 in relation to this document.

We otherwise await the Tribunal’s orders in relation to the severance applications, following which we will comply with any timetabling orders which are made to progress this matter.

We will shortly contact you by email in relation to the process for sharing these documents with you.

This letter has been copied to Mrs Reid and to the Tribunal.

Yours sincerely
