Sensitive

Statement in the matter of R v Vida REID

Name	Amy Janet Crane
Occupation	Unemployed
Address	Known to National Disability Insurance Scheme (NDIS)
Date	13 October 2022

STATES:

1. This statement made by me accurately sets out the evidence that I would be prepared, if necessary, to give in court as a witness.

2. My full name is Amy Janet Crane. I am 43 years of age.

3. My residential address is known to the National Disability Insurance Agency (NDIA).

4. I have medically diagnosed with a psychosocial disorder. Due to the disability, I have received benefits from the Australian Government through NDIS since 29 June 2018. My NDIS Participant number is 430884288.

5. I know Vida Reid (Vida). I am aware she is the director of an unregistered provider business called Forward Focus Group (FFG). I remember she told me that she was in the middle of being audited and she was very busy getting everything ready.

6. I am aware that Vida's husband Simon Reid was an accountant or something like that.

7. I also know Leah who worked for Vida as an admin lady. She came to my house with Vida when we first met.

8. I was referred to Vida as a service provider from Laura Torrisi from Daddaa Fremantle Art Organisation. I contacted Vida and spoke to her and within two days she came to my house and we discussed having Vida providing services for me. I recall she asked me to send her an email requesting her to be my support coordinator. On 5 July 2021 I sent her an email from my email address of aimcrane79@gmail.com to her email address of vida@ffg.net.au.

9. On 13 October 2021 I had a conversation with NDIS Investigator Brenda Ryan. She showed me a printout of the email I sent to Vida.

EXHIBITED DOCUMENT: AC01 Email to Vida Reid dated 5 July 2021

10. She also showed me a consent form with my signature on giving NDIA permission to share my information with Vida Reid. I can say that it is my signature on this form. It is dated 7 July 2021.

EXHIBITED DOCUMENT: AC02 Copy of Consent Form dated 7/7/21

11. I have also seen a copy of an NDIS consent form for Vida Reid to act on my behalf. I can say the signature is mine and it was signed when Vida was at my house.

EXHIBITED DOCUMENT: AC03 Copy of third party consent form dated 7/7/21

12. From this date, I was of the belief that Vida and her company were supposed to provide services to assist me.

13. I remember Vida offered to paint my house and buy me a washing machine. Vida arranged for the washing machine and I got one delivered after about 3 weeks of being with Vida. It was from the Good Guys and it cost around $680. I did not have to pay for anything. I never had the house painted.

14. I have never heard of a company called Hybrid Hive.

15. I have heard of the company called Manage Mode. I was of the belief that Vida had a link with Manage Mode. I recall I had to email Manage Mode to get my funding released.

16. I don't remember but I believe I could have signed a service agreement with Vida.

17. As REID is an unregistered provider, I am aware the invoices for her services are put though a Plan Management Agency. I have never received any statements from any Plan Managed Agency. I am of the belief Vida received them for me.

18. During the time Vida and her company were my support providers, I never received any supports at all other than the washing machine.

19. I never had anybody come to my house for house cleaning services. Any claims from FFG and Vida for house cleaning are false.

20. I never had anybody come to my house for assisting me with selfcare or any duties wo help me at home. Any claims from FFG or Vida for these claims are false.

21. I never had anybody help with any training courses. I do remember Vida told me about a florist course I could attend but I never did this course. Any claim for this or under the category Self Management Capacity Building are false and did not happen.

22. I never received any coaching or help with dealing with my psychosocial related issues. Any claims for this are false.

23. I recall I did receive services for house and yard maintenance. The people who did that work were Anne and Paul. They came two or three times while I was with Vida. They were here for about 2 hours each time they came. After leaving Vida I kept using Anne and Paul. Any claims from FFG or Vida for anything more than these three visits would be false.

24. I don't recall being taken out for any community activity so if there are claims for this I cannot recall if this happened.

25. I cannot comment on claims for support coordination. Vida and I had several phone calls about why I wasn't getting any supports that I needed.

26. I remember I rang the NDIS and made a complaint about Vida and FFG.

27. After a few months of not getting any services from FFG or Vida, I was at a very bad suicidal state and I rang Vida and told her I did not want her services any more. I also sent an email to Vida saying I was ending our agreement. I also had to email Mange Mode as well. I do not have those emails now. I have not had anything to do with her anymore.

28. As a result of the time not getting the help from FFG or Vida I now do not trust many providers. It affected me in a very bad way. The emotional state and suicidal states I got into during this time was from the lack of support by Vida. She made me feel like I did not matter and did not count.

This statement is true to the best of my knowledge and belief. I have made this statement knowing that, if it is tendered in evidence, I will be guilty of a crime if I have wilfully included in the statement anything that I know to be false or that I do not believe is true.

Form

Consent for the NDIA to share your information

Please complete and sign this form to give the National Disability Insurance Agency (NDIA) permission to share your information on your behalf. The information we will share will depend on the permission you give us on this form. For example, you can agree to us sharing information to a third party about:

- you
- your plan or your funded supports
- your medical reports held by us
- your NDIS plan being developed
- requests asking us to review a planning decision we have made.

You do not have to give your permission if you do not want to share your information. If you give us permission and then decide that you don't want us to share your information anymore, you can withdraw your consent by contacting us. You can do this in writing or verbally.

We will not share your personal information to anyone unless you have given your permission or the disclosure of your information is required or authorised by law.

Note: You can provide your consent to share your information with up to three people and/or organisations on this form.

Privacy and your personal information

Collection of your personal information

The National Disability Insurance Agency (NDIA) would like some personal information from you to simplify your engagement with the NDIS. Any personal information you provide to the NDIA is safe under the National Disability Insurance Scheme Act 2013 and the Privacy Act 1988. You can also ask to see what personal information (if any) we hold about you at any time and can seek correction if the information is wrong.

Personal information use and disclosure

The NDIA will use your information to support your involvement in the NDIS.

The NDIA will NOT use any of your personal information for any other purpose, or disclose your personal information to any other organisations or individuals (including any overseas recipients), unless authorised by law or you provide your consent for us to do so.

The NDIA's privacy policy describes

- how we use your personal information.
- why some personal information may be given to other organisations from time to time.
- how you can access the personal information we have about you on our system.
- how you can complain about a privacy breach, and how the NDIA deals with the complaint.
- how you can get your personal information corrected if it is wrong. You can find the policy at the NDIS website (ndis.gov.au/privacy).

Personal information storage

The NDIA uses an Australian Government computer system to store personal information. System users, other than NDIA staff, may at times be able to see your name when they perform program duties, however they can't record, use or disclose information, and they will not know if you become an NDIS participant. State or territory government officials may also have personal information access as part of the agreement between governments to assist the states and territories in their NDIS evaluation.

AC03.

Form

Consent for a third party to act on behalf of a participant

Please complete this form when you wish to give a third party (a person or organisation - such as your legal representative or other advocate) permission to act on your behalf. This relates to information held by the National Disability Insurance Agency (NDIA) about you, your NDIS plan, or your NDIS supports. You are not required to use this form to enable a nominee to act on your behalf.

The things a third party is able to do will depend on your permission on this form. For example, you can agree to the third party making a request on your behalf:

- for a plan review where you have a change in circumstances
- for a review of a decision made by the NDIA
- for Assistive Technology, Home Modifications or other funded supports, or
- making arrangements or providing information for a plan being developed.

If you give a third party permission to do something on your behalf, the NDIA will share information relevant to that act with that third party.

In Part D of this form, you will be asked to confirm your consent for the NDIA to share information about you with the third party you have identified.

You do not have to give your permission if you do not want a third party to do things on your behalf. If you decide that you do not want the third party to do things on your behalf anymore, you can withdraw your consent by contacting us.

How do I return this form to the NDIA?

There are a few ways you can return this form to us:

- Email: enquiries@ndis.gov.au
- Mail: NDIA, GPO Box 700, Canberra ACT 2601
- In person: Visit a Local Area Coordinator, Early Childhood Partner or NDIS office in your area.
