Jodi called Meng when she was at work and asked if she had to time to go over the review and Meng stated that she only had 5 minutes and she still went ahead and proceeded with the review. I stated to Terri and Vida that due to Jodi not making any effort into calling myself as it was requested because Meng didn't want to be on the phone as she required some help but du to the lack of effort the support coordination has been declined again. Vida stated for me to put through a complaint as it was not fair that the planner didn't give Meng and myself a time and date for the meeting to go ahead.	$32.55

Hi Chloe,

Thank you very much for the follow up call this morning.
As expected, the NDIS review officer Jodi has made a call this morning, and she mentioned that they have received a few reports uploaded to their system about Aiken's funding review.
She said that I can forward her email address to you for any further documentations to be sent. He email address is below.
As she will be on leave this Friday, so that she requires the documents to be sent to her by this Wednesday if possible.
I have mentioned that we would like some funding for Support Coordination and more funding under core support as we mentioned previously.

I have copied Aiken's key therapist Natalie in the email to keep her in the loop.

Thank you very much for your kind assistance.

Meng
