Subject: Barry Macdonald NDIS: 431516344

Good Afternoon,

I would like to advise of concerning payments that have been paid through Barry's NDIS plan from his current independent support worker.

Barry Macdonald
NDIS number: 431516344
DOB: 24/11/1958
Address: 26 Callison Way, Koondoola, WA.

Keith Gilbert has advised he is now working with Barry as his support worker. When introduced to Barry from a referral, Keith made the call to myself and advised he is the nominee and the spokesperson for Barry.
Keith advised anything regarding Barry must go through himself, including therapies, and funding as Barry has no informal supports. Keith advised he has been a friend of Barry for many years and is assisting him navigate his NDIS plan.

When appointed support coordinator was off sick, a staff member from FFG contacted Barry directly and asked a few questions regarding his plan. Barry relayed this information through Keith.
Keith then called the directors of FFG to complain about a staff member contacting Barry as this was not as requested.

During this time, Keith was conducting gardening services for Barry and billing through to his NDIS plan. Support coordinator did question this and advised the guidelines. Keith then went on to state he has spoken with the commission and they have advised this is not a conflict of interest.

Barry's mental health did decline and Barry went in to psychosis mode. I offered a agency to put supports in for Barry as they are medical professionals trained by a registered nurses Barry needs medical attention and support workers who are equipment and trained to know when to take him to hospital if required.
Keith refused to put any other supports in place, as they do not know him and he can look after him to full potential.

Keith then commence as a "independent support worker" for Barry without the correct training. Keith continues to submit invoicing and remain in the position as a independent support worker. Barry MacDonald has recently been hospitalised on multiple occasions due to being in psychosis mode whilst in this data Keith has advised us that he is going to get Barry to sign off on documents appointing him as a legal guardian to look after his whole estate and his care.

tion what Barry actually needs but what Keith once the house to look like if they were to sell it. Appointed builder had pushed back stating he will have to report what is required and necessary under the NDIS guidelines.

Keith called Support Coordinator 3/09/21 with a very heavy tone stating the quote will not be paid as this is not ethical. Keith then stated this was a conflict of interest as we have worked with this provider. This builder was at request and with the choice and control of this participant, we went ahead and booked this service to go ahead. Keith threated myself on the phone stating this is a conflict of interest, while in his own glass house. Keith then stated he will do the work himself and bill it through as a support worker which will be cheaper.

This is against the guidelines and fraudulent activity. We request that the agency, makes all future plan's for Barry Macdonald NDIA managed for the safe guard of the participant and to minimize risk and misuse of funds.

We have contacted the plan manager at Plan Care, Tilly. We discussed and advised the invoices for Keith should not be paid and to educate Keith on the NDIS guidelines. We have done our due diligence in reporting this to the agency and the plan manager we now leave it in your hands to investigate and to ensure the safety of the participant

Subject: Hours for respite

Hi Keith,

Sorry for the late response, had a few issues with power outages over the last 3 business days due to the current weather and had to move working spots again today

If Jeanette is happy to move forward with respite, she can invoice through to myself for the 1:1 supports as we will need to send through to the plan manager as one item number and one invoice for the accomadation and support work.

This will be for the rate of –
$57.10 per hour from 7am – 11pm
$150.00 per sleep over – 11pm – 7am

How do we decide if Short Term Accommodation is reasonable and necessary for you?
All NDIS supports must meet the reasonable and necessary criteria.
When we think about Short Term Accommodation we need to know:

- the need for Short Term Accommodation is related to your disability
- it helps you pursue your goals
- it helps you to participate in the community
- it's value for money
- how much support your family and other informal supports provide.

Respite, or Short term accomadation is not funded for any form of home crisis. I have looked in Barry's goals which states the below.
This respite is deemed reasonable and nessasary due to the amount of check ins from hospital and trauma he has received this year along. I highly recommend doing many more!
NDIS fund up to 28 days of respite a year at 14 days per stay.

Hi Terri,

Thursday 24th I did a 4hour buddy shift with Jeanette, went very well, Jeanette is a world of knowledge, thank you.

Friday 25th arrived at Barry's at 7am, made Barry breakfast and gave Barry his medication at 8am, Barry was in a good mood, I made sure he was showered and dressed before I left at 9am.

Saturday 26th, arrived at Barry's house at 7am, made breakfast, gave Barry his medication, Barry was in a good mood in the morning, but then his mood changed after the psych team left, Barry was talking to himself and upset with the voices in his head.
I helped Barry with house work, then took Barry out for a few hours.

Sunday 27th, arrived at Barry's house at 7am, made breakfast and gave Barry his medication, Barry was good and I took Barry to church at 9.30am, Barty had a good day at church, talking to everyone, we got back from church at 1.00pm, Barry was tired as he didn't sleep much on Saturday night, he slept on the couch for a bit, I took Barry to the shop and helped arrange his evening meal.

Monday 28th, arrived at Barry's at 7.00am, Barry was up and in good mood, helped with breakfast and gave Barry his medication.

Kind Regards
Keith Gilbert

Subject: Barry MacDonald 22/06/21

Spoke to doctor at hospital early this morning, the plan doctors wanted was to assess Barry's mental state at grey lands for 2 week period. I drove to Barry's to collect personal care and clean clothing and his walker, started at 8am, then drove to hospital. On arrival I checked on Barry he was resting and back to his usual self.Barry had a strong odour so i suggested he have a shower and put clean clothes on, After some time the psych reg spoke with myself and Barry stating there are no available beds at greylands and there was another option
To have psych doctor and assistant visit Barry's home once a day for 2 weeks, Barry agreed with this, awaiting appointment times, Barry also needs an mri and will be given an outpatient appointment for this.
Psych reg asked Barry if he recalls his behaviour on Sunday, he didn't really but said he knows he was different. Phych reg not really sure on what is going on but stated it may be a mental condition (both Barry's brothers have a mental condition) on discharge I drove Barry home and he fell asleep. He needed fresh milk so we stopped and bought some. We arrived back at Barry's and I settled him in. I changed podiatrist appointment from next Monday to tomorrow as Barry's toe nails were quite long.we organised dinner for tonight, and I prompted Barry to pop his pj and dressing gown on as Barry's house is so cold he only has a small electric heater, I made a cup of soup to warm him up and made him comfortable on his old broken recliner with a rug on top of him, I turned his bedside lamp on beside his bed so he doesn't fall walking in the dark at bedtime, during this time we also sat and had a cup tea and chatted, I wanted to test Barry's pendant but it was flat so I charged it up and showed Barry how to use it again, I also saved the number on my phone so I could ring pendant when he doesn't answer mobile, Barry was tired but in fairly good spirits when I left, I reassured him that I will see him tomorrow.

He played with it and will take a photo once done. went through his medical reports that I could find for co-ordinator, we had herbal tea and Barry talked about things in his past that were upsetting in his life. Subject: RE: Participant at risk - Barry McDonald [SEC=UNOFFICIAL]

Hi Christine,

Thank you for updating me on Barry's upcoming plan and giving me an ETS, this gives some hope for my participant.

I have more medical information I would like this to be documented and took in to count when completing Barry's upcoming plan. Please see attached.
Barry is confused, delirious and fatigue daily, we need to put reasonable and necessary supports in place, for Barry to remain supported, physically and mentally to enable him to get out of bed in the morning.

Can I also kindly request this plan be plan managed, to ensure the supports in place right now remain. Barry has experienced neglect multiple times throughout the previous years. Barry is yet to complete his report to the safeguards commission from his neglect and disgusting abuse, he has only been able to open up about in the last few business days. Keith, next nominee has reached out regarding behaviour that has occurred from a two different providers, this is something I will take very seriously in my role to ensure this is not done to any human again. This report will be submitted in the next few business days.

Barry has grown close to his support worker, domestic assistance employee's and is being heard with support coordination. I'm worried what this could potentially do to Barry's mental stability and right now he is the lowest he has been in years.

If we can be heard on the above requests, this will truly make a difference on this man's life.

Thank you for your time,

Warm Regards,
Terri Roberts

nt, as I was not there.

In regards to the issues surrounding poor communication of Barry's regular appointments, this occurs on a fort nightly session at the same time, Barry will receive a message the day prior to remind him of the time and date. If this is an issue, we can put another strategy in place to ensure he is aware of exactly going on ie. A simple phone call that morning.

This was the reason I wanted to talk on the phone, as sometimes on emails things can be interpreter differently. Please if you find a free moment on Monday feel free to give me a call, as I would not want any of this to reflect badly for Mr MacDonald and make him feel uncomfortable with us as his therapists.

Subject: Barry MacDonald 8/6/21

8/6/21 drove to mirrabooka as Barry wanted to look around shops, done a small healthy food shop, dropped of urine sample to path west for scgh request. Had lunch, cleaned out deep freezer, cleaned kitchen, sorted out meals.
Finished work at 2pm and stayed until 3:30 on a social capacity.

9/6/21 I was not supporting Barry today. Barry and I communicate everyday to confirm he is ok, today Barry did not communicate with me so I drove to check on him and he was having issues emptying his bladder, this occurs at times due to his bladder cancer and enlarged prostate. He kept drinking water to encourage ability to urinate in turn this was causing Barry to become a little delusional. So I assessed the situation and felt the need to call ambulance. Barry was taken to hospital for assessing. I communicated with medical staff and received last phone call from doctor at 9:52pm

10/06/21 I had correspondence with medical staff from 8:20am they were unaware of bcg cancer treatment, so I requested if Barry is fit enough to have treatment. Barry had treatment late afternoon. I received a call from hospital at 6pm to collect Barry from hospital. I drove him home, he did not eat dinner and was hungry so I arranged food, cleaned up, he showered and dressed in night ware. Barry was tired but in good spirits. Although I had phone correspondence concerning Barry there were no charges for phone correspondence.

11/6/21 brought Barry chicken and veg soup for lunch, provided by myself. Arrived at Barry's he was in a good state. I received a message from ot concerning who to call to set up pendant, I set up pendant although locked box needs to be fitted with keys, drove to shops to purchase fresh produce, cut fruit up in large container to encourage healthy eating, cooked a healthy veg soup for weekend meals. Cleaned kitchen, done some domestic duties, done exercises all except floor exercises as Barry struggles to get on the floor, went for a walk, Barry had no smoke detector in his house so I provide on my expense and hooked on nail outside his bedroom door, Barry also burns pots when cooking due to falling asleep so I purchased a cooking timer. Good support, Barry very happy and doing well after bcg treatment.

I don't normally work with Barry on weekends, although I may pop in and check on his status, due to bcg treatment, he has in the past got a uti from treatment.

10/06/2021	Terri Roberts	1 hr	Phone Call / SMS	Incident with better rehab	SC spoke with state manager of better care who advised the OT who attended Barry's property yesterday 09/06 stated Barry was drinking alcohol during this appointment with the appointed support worker Jeanette. State manager advised this will be lodged with the commission as an incident report. Keith advised barry was handed safety pendant yesterday with 5 numbers linked in case of any falls. This pendent does not work. SC will write email to better rehab for this to be exchanged. SC kindly requested this to be sent via email on what was witnessed. Sc spoke with Keith to advise what happened with the situation during Jeanette shift. Keith advised this was incorrect information and Jeanette had already knocked off work and was asked to have a drink with Barry. Jeanette did this outside of work hours. As per the NDIS guidelines, Jeanette is an independent support worker and is allow to associate with clients outside of work. If Jeanette worked with an agency, this would be against the guidelines. Keith will be lodging a formal complaint about the accusations. Jeanette, support worker contacted SC to also advised she has called the NDIS regarding the situation that occurred on the 09/06. Jeanette has advised the neglect Barry has been through throughout the years and would like to lodge a formal complaint to the NDIS about previous SC company - MyWay.

Subject: Barry McDonald - 431516344

Good Afternoon,

I had a phone call with Team Leader, reference number - 7002554869 who advised to reach out to request sufficient reporting for Barry.

Previous support coordination My Way, have refused to send Support Coordination report that was completed and submitted on the 18/03/21, 9 weeks after a phone plan review was token place for on 11/01/2021.
This report was billed and participant was left without support coordination in his plan. Barry stated he was neglected by this organisation, who again refused, bullied and intimidated barry, who is a man living with multiple disabilities.
Barry would like to go forward with a complaint to the commission. Barry has requested this report on several occasions and this has been declined from the NDIS and My Way. Due to the neglect, Barry would like to have this report as he feels this could potentially stop him from gaining the correct amount of funding for his supports.

Can I kindly request this support coordination report be sent through for - Barry McDonald
