15/12/2021	Toby Ryder	3 hrs	General Notes	Organising and booking respite with air BnB.	SC Toby was allocated the task of securing bookings for two respite holidays with air BnB. There was a number of barriers presented in securing this bookings which were resolved through collaboration with colleagues. Toby worked to discuss possible solutions to the issues regarding a third party booking of an air BNB through the website. There were a few different attempts to secure this booking as simply as possible, the chosen solution was that Toby open an account and secure the booking for Calista under his personal details. Booking for swan view was confirmed and payed for and Toby spent time messaging and speaking on the phone with the Host, Vicki, to clarify why Calista was using a third party to secure the booking. Booking for Swan view is confirmed and Vicki is more than happy to have Calista stay. Toby will continue to work towards securing the city loft for Calista he will attempt to call the Host and negotiate the booking.	$300.42

I did witness you become very over whelmed today for a number of reasons, which I have taken on board as good feedback. We here at FFG want to make our participants feel safe in our environment, so again really good feedback. You discussed today the lighting in the office and how much this affects you to function and concentrate on your work/conversations with staff members. I have passed on this feedback to the directors Simon and Vida who have already discussed the changes we can make. I also would like to advise, you are more than welcome to work from home moving forward as you are unable to focus in the environment of heavy foot traffic. We understand this and support you to work from home. When working from home, if you can send myself and Vida what you have actioned for the day to keep the transparency, this will be fab. Housing
- Current place I live is too expensive ($480pw + bills)
- I need assistance establishing a plan to move into a cheaper place, ex. A $300pw apartment would save me almost $800 a month.
- My lease doesn't end until end of November, so it would be a break lease
- An option: off-campus private student accomodation (studio/1bdr), UWA has an accomodation guarantee
- Brave needs to be kept secret, most places don't allow pets (including the place I live in currently) and Brave provides substantial mental health support to me
- I have an extensive and perfect rental history

Study
- Accepted into UWA Bachelor of Science for semester 2 2021 (full-time, on campus)
- Re-enrolled into North Metropolitan TAFE Certificate IV in Mental Health (online, self-paced, 1/3 semesters already completed) prior to being accepted to UWA
- Need to accept UWA offer, then can advise Centrelink of full-time study commencement

Work
- Option: Work remotely providing IT solutions. Potential work pipeline: FFG, ABCO (in future)
- Need to set up a small business
- Need to create service packages/pricing
- Need to update Lauchlan, job coach at AtWork (DES employment services) about study and work

Health Team
- Psychologist: Siobhan
- Psychiatrist: Daniel
- Support Coordinator: Terri
- Support worker: Laney

Hi Calista,

Thank you for sending relevant information through.

I have had a chat with Lachlan, who sounds lovely and will be looking after you moving forward.
We discussed the eligibility you have and if they have all relevant medical information submitted in the Centrelink database.

You are currently receiving job seeker payments but are eligible for DES employment services assistance.

- You are Internship eligible
- You have Wage subsidy eligibility of $8,000
- With 23 hours per week of work requirements

I have spoken about the amount of hours Centrelink have benched you as, this is very high. Lachlan agreed with me and will negotiate the job searches once you come off your medical exemption on the 29/06/2021.
Lachlan will get you back in the office to re-do your job plan after the 29/06/2021. Now until 29/06/2021 you will be exempt from any mutual obligations including appointments and job searching requirements.
Once this date ceases, you will be required to job search and attend appointments, if you don't the system will penalize you with the risk of gaining demerits and payment suspension. Lachlan advised, the job searches will be put down to 8 per month, instead of 20. I still in my option think this is too high. We will cross this bridge when its comes to it. I have advised I will send a business case for this to be approved by upper management to have this reduced on you come off the exemption.

Can I kindly request details below –

Physio details to link service.

Have a wonderful day Calista ☺

Warm Regards,

ail

Good Morning,

I would like to discuss a invoice that has been declined, for a un-non reasons. Calista requires psychology for his psychosocial disability which has been diagnosed and NDIS are aware.
Calista has been advised that no appointments will be funded for this therapy, but I would like to understand why? You as plan managers cannot advise what the client can and cannot fund from their NDIS plan, you are not qualified or educated in this NDIS to do so.
I understand to an extent of fraudulent activities or payments being processed that did not been the guidelines, but this is for Calista's functionality to access to the community.

Calista has the below goals in her NDIS plan, therefore invoicing for Psychology is reasonable and necessary as per the NDIS guidelines.
Psychology services are funded by the NDIS if your NDIS plan includes the support category “Improved Daily Living Skills”, which is covered under the Capacity Building section of an NDIS plan. You must have this in order to receive psychology services, and psychology services must also be aligned with your goals set out in your plan.

GOALS -
I would like to improve my physical and mental health and wellbeing I would like to support to develop my social skills, understand and regulate my emotions.

Can I please have confirmation asap this invoice has or will be been paid, if unable to, my participant will find another plan manager who will assist in her capacity as FUNDED in the NDIS plan she currently has.

Warm Regards,
Terri Roberts

Good Afternoon,

My name is Terri. I'm the appointed support coordinator for Calista. Can I kindly request the invoice to ensure all the correct item numbers are on there to put this bill through?

ain any reports you have with Calista and be informed of any incidents that may occur in the near future to assist where I can.

At the moment I'm offering Calista as much support as possible and also linking services for her daily activities. Calista can become very over whelmed when it's comes to things that may be simple for you and I.
I have linked cleaning services and also assisting with possible employment along with commencing Calista with a DES provider. I'm very aware of this week's challenges for Calista as this is the 1 year anniversary of her father passing in 2020 tomorrow 18/05/21.

Any assistance you are able to offer, will be highly appreciated.

Warm Regards,
Terri Roberts

o rush, and I mean that. Please don't over whelm yourself with all the things you cant find yourself to do right now. Remember, we talked today and I advised this is just for right now how you are feeling. Not forever.

You will manage next week -Because you are a strong independent woman who has got this! Calista, you really don't give yourself enough credit for where you are right now. I can't tell you that I understand how your feeling and I don't think anyone can. I'm only one call away. Anything that will bring you comfort please let me know to attempt to assist where I can. If you would like services linked to maybe attempt to take away a little pain on this day, let me know and I will stop drop and roll.

Dietician, I will start asking around on Monday morning. I do not have one at the top of my head, but I'm sure one of the girls in the office could possibly pass on a number for someone.
If we manage to get a service, would you like it face to face or telecom if offered?

We have a neuro/paediatric OT coming on board shortly with FFG who specializes in Autism. I can keep you updated, as this OT is FANTASTIC!

With your Psychiatrist, I can reach out to him Monday and have a chat with him regarding billing 😊 I cannot promise anything, but I will try my best!

I really hope this is answered some questions Calista, and I'm so sorry your feeling so under the weather emotionally. Tomorrow is a new day…. One step at a time.
PS, I hope you tried some meditation today to allow your brain to shut off, even if it was for a few moments.

Warm Regards,
Terri Roberts

Hi Calista,

Sorry for the late response again! Ok, let me help a little –

Centrelink
Are you currently seeking job seeker payment? If so, what provider are you commenced with? Medical certificate, is this a Centrelink approved medical certificate to gain exemption?
My background is employment services, and I was running the latest site in the region, please reach out and I can happily assist.

Abdul
Please let me know how you go ☺

If you are un prepared for your upcoming meet and greet, push this appointment out with Xeptional?
Happy to attend with you, if this makes you feel more comfort.

Kim, I can assist with also. Kim has advised her Wednesday's work out perfect as she is in the area on this day. Morning preferably. Let me know what suits you. When you are ready… No rush, and I mean that. Please don't over whelm yourself with all the things you cant find yourself to do right now. Remember, we talked today and I advised this is just for right now how you are feeling. Not forever.

Hi Terri,

-- Next week

1. Monday morning 17/05 at 10:30am I have a telephone meeting with Centrelink re: job requirements. My medical certificate payments end next week. I spoke to Centrelink and this conversation with them on Monday is likely going to trigger me being moved to Disability Employment Services. Overwhelming as this is a large call to action in the midst of organising NDIS supports

2. I didn't have a preliminary "about services" call due to my energy levels but I have been in touch and am going to meet with Abdul from Perth Healthcare on Monday afternoon at 2pm to learn more about support work services so this can come into effect

3. Wednesday morning at 10am I have a meeting with Narelle Xceptional which is an autistic talent recruitment agency. I don't feel very prepared for this as it's regarding what I am looking for in a job (I don't know).

4. I haven't confirmed a cleaning schedule with Kim yet as I am feeling overwhelmed. I hope to contact her today

ts with a similar profile to me you recommend I be linked up with for an FCA and ongoing support as I know there is often a wait time so it would be good to get this in order

3. With visits to my psychiatrist you mentioned creative invoicing could be possible. Can you please advise more on that? Also, I had an appointment with my psychologist the other day (they have billed NDSP - we'll see how it goes) and she's advised that her and Daniel (my psychiatrist) are in correspondence about me so this is a great news as an adult to have them on my team and being collaborative

I am feeling burnt out and it is concerning, and am trying to actively recover and recharge over the weekend for next week.

Thanks,
Calista

SC spoke with Calista for assigned appt. Calista advised she is feeling very burnt out with all the thoughts of what she needs to do.
SC coached and talked Calista through this. Calista was also crying on the phone. SC asked Calista to think of a positive with every negitive.
Calista stated she is very thankful for the services put in place also.
SC stated she will catch up with Calista in the coming week

Awesome, all linked up now to view your funding.

I have crunched some numbers for your plan and the below is divided by the entire year of supports.

Core funding $28,048.96
Core funding will pay for your supports including support workers, cleaners, gardeners and activities in the community.
This works out to be $500.87 per week of spending. If you would like fortnightly cleans I would recommend allocating 3 hours for cleaning as all cleaning must be a l of 23 hours of assistance from support coordination. As discussed a plan review will eat this money up as the amount of hours support coordination implement and can quite heavy.

Again, please do no stress about the dollar sign. I just want to be extremely transparent with you and your current funding.

Please have a think if you would like to fire a review up and I can get to work.
