Hi Sanjana,

I hope you are well!

We did not the outcome as expected. We were pushing for more funding in the core area of the plan to put more supports in place to prevent carers burn out.
We did get a little top up but no where near enough. We are now awaiting FIO for Ella.

I have appointed Chloe as the support coordinator due to structural changes here at FFG. Chloe will be able to relay with you regarding supports ect.

Thank you for checking in ☺

21/09/2021	Chloe osborne	1 hr 15 minutes	Phone Call / SMS	Call to Garden City Apple Store for iPad	Called the Garden City Apple store to see what iPad's they have for under $500 and informed them that it is for one of my clients who are with the NDIS and the way that it happens is I will need a invoice with the iPad details and the clients details will need to be on the invoice as well as we will send the invoice off to the plan manager for payment then the client can go and pick it up. After he had a look with everything and the prices for the iPad I asked if they have some in stock and he stated they will be in stock on Friday, I asked if he is able to do up a invoice with all the details on there and he stated that he will have to put me trough to another person who is able to do that. I was on hold and once the other person answered I stated the same thing and he stated he will need to put me through to someone else as well. After I was off hold a lady answered and asked what my enquiry was and I stated that I'm needing a invoice done for one of my clients who is with the NDIS and she asked if I had a booking number and I stated no I didn't and that I'm just after a invoice to be done. so I can then send it off to the clients plan manager so the payment can be done, the lady stated she will have to go and ask if she is able to do it and she asked if she can put me on hold until she gets the answer. Once she hoped back on the phone there were 2 people on the phone she he stated that we will have to make a booking order first and then a invoice will be generated within the next 24 to 48	$81.36

Thank you so much I appreciate your kind words.

The NDIS did not fund for this, I don't understand why. Lets file a FIO which will take up to 30 days for a response. I will jump on this now and in regards to linking services, Chloe can assist with the below therapies for service agreements ect

Subject: RE: New plan

Hi Eliana,

The NDIS fail to notify you when new plans come out the majority of the time, unfortunately. I will send to the appointed plan manager once the quotes for the iPad have been finalised and payment comes out of the old plan as we have 30 days to bill to the old plan. I have asked Chloe to help in this instance as we have had some structural changes here in the company.

I have gained a new position as the service manager for Support Coordination, where I will now have a very small caseload with complex NDIS plans. I will be overlooking everything and I have appointed you to Chloe, who is a young, vibrant and go getter of a support coordinator. Again, I will overlook everything and not going anywhere, you are still more than welcome to call if you have any concerns, questions or queries.

Chloe has the letter of support for the iPad and will be working on this for a hopeful pick up by next week. She will be able to keep you in the loop.

Regarding the new plan –
We were really looking for more hours implemented in to the core part of the plan. We did gain a $1500.00 increase from the last plan. This will not be sufficient for yearly supports, as you are in need of more assistance with Ella.
Ella has $500 of low cost assistive technology in the core which leaves you with a total amount of $1839.24 in the core which is flexible to use. You can negotiate a rate with all supports listed as you are plan managed. For example; NDIS price guide is beside the supports below but again you can reach out to your local community for cleaners at a rate of $35.00 instead of the $50.10 per hour. Instead of having 32 hours of support working hours per the NDIS price guide, you could have 61 hours of supports. Realistically this amount with $35 per hour will only give Ella 1 hour of support work per week for 56 weeks.

- Cleaners $50.10 per hour
- Gardeners $50.10 per hour
- Support workers $57.00 per hour (you can negotiate and pay SW $30 per hour)

$18,623.04 of capacity building supports for therapies which include the psychology, physio, OT and any other therapies that Ella may need.

- Please advise if you would like Building Blocks linked in with this service for occupational therapy
- Please advise if you would like West Coast Speech Pathology for ongoing speech therapy.

You have $9,954.75 of behavioural therapy management for intervention inside and outside of home. This is called in NDIS terms “PBS”. This is where a Behavioural se and we will ensure this is done immediately.

With this new plan also, we can now link you to a new plan manager if requested, as I know you had many bulling tactic emails previously. If you would like this service linked also, please advise and Chloe will jump on this ??

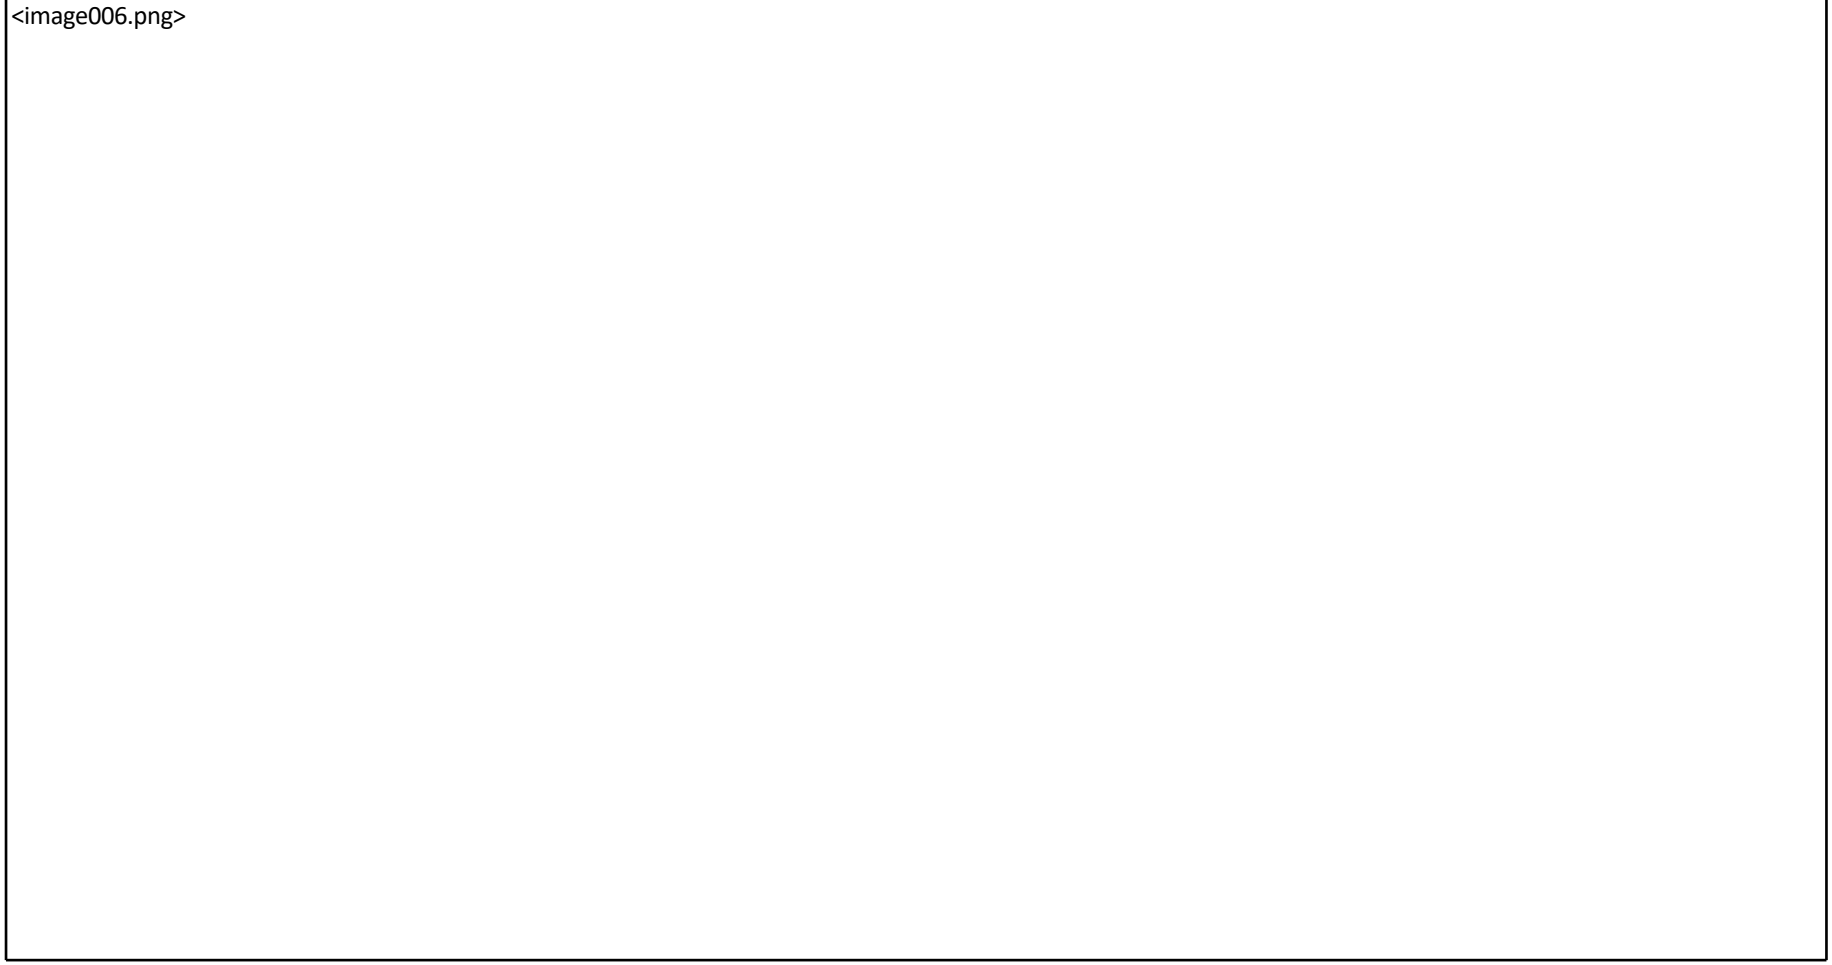

I hope this all makes sense ??
