29/09/2021	Rachael Thomas	30 minutes	General Notes	calls	SC made calls to Sandy and Jackie regarding the arranged de-cluttering service SC contacted Jackie to discuss the situation in regard to last Friday's de-cluttering service. Jackie said that Sandy (de-clutterer) tried to throw out some of the things that she wanted to keep. According to Sandy Jackie is not in the right mind set to receive decluttering services, and Sandy is not prepared to continue providing this service to Jackie, as unless she is prepared to part with 30 - 40 per cent of the clutter in each zone and be committed to maintaining it, she feels her services are of no use. 16/09/2021	Rachael Thomas	15 minutes	General Notes	Email	Email from Jackie Hi Rachael, Well of course this makes sense that she couldn't know how many until she could assess, but that made me wonder how there could be an amount put on it already then. I feel like her deciding which are best and how many to purchase would be a better idea as I've been trying to tackle such for quite some time without making much headway on my own merits, so yes as I wrote yesterday I'll work out a way to somehow get around the unexpected extra cost-I'd really like to know what Terri was thinking when telling me her version of it that was so different though! Oh and by the way, on further thought, it's quite possible or likely that it WOULD be more needed after these initial 6 hours over two dates actually, to help really get on top of everything to then be able to maintain easier... Jakki Dodds From Rachael Thanks Jackie, OK I'll advise her to bring the containers with her, please ensure that you pay her on the day. 16/09/2021	Rachael Thomas	15 minutes	General Notes	Email correspondence	Further correspondence re: decluttering services Hi Rachael, Oh I see. Well that's fairly understandable I guess, though I am quite confused why Terri would tell me that if it's not actually the case at all. Ummm, well I feel like after the amount of time and effort it's been to get it actually lined up, that it's not worth just cancelling it now that I have been made aware it's a different story to what I was originally led to believe, so I guess I'll just have to somehow figure out a way to get around that extra unexpected cost, and cover it, although the timing for that is rather unfortunate too. Just to make sure as well if that $50 worth of containers would be the once or per visit? Or dependent on further assessment… Jakki Dodds Hi Jackie, The number of containers required is not known at this point until she gets there, but after speaking with Sandra she advised $50 worth of containers - she will have a better idea of your storage needs once she is there. Do you want Sandra to provide the containers on the day? Or will you be buying them? Please let me know so that I can advise her (If you do, you will need to pay her cash on the day).	$25.04

Correspondence with Jackie as she needed more clarification of the service and was concerned that she may need to assist in the decluttering. SC assured her this was not the case, and that all she would need to do is provide storage boxes/containers.
Numerous emails to Sandra and Jackie:

Hi Sandra,

With regard to our earlier conversation about containers, are you able to increase the cost of the de-clutter by $50 in order to cover the cost of the containers?
As Jackie does not have the funds to cover the $50 cost out of her pocket.

Please advise

Thanks so much for clarifying Rachael. Umm as far as boxes n such go, it would seem that I got a bit of the wrong idea about that part of it from Terri-as she had told me that getting the best storage things and billing them(under low cost low risk or something like that I believe she said) would all come as part of the service, so was that not the case at all then? I hadn't factored that into the budget for this pay I most recently got as it wasn't something I knew about and the next pay isn't until the 25th. So that part has thrown a bit of a spanner in the works!!

from Rachael:
Leave it with me Jackie, I will see if she can include it in her invoicing as part of the clean, and just charge a little bit more to allow for the containers.

Hi Jackie,

Thank you for your response.

Due to structural changes with my new role as the service manager, I will need to now delegate the workload with other support coordinators.
We have a new support coordinator who has come on board with much knowledge of the NDIS. Rachael conducted the roll out of the NDIS in 2013 and has grown with the agency. Rachael is very experience and will now be your appointed support coordinator who will help navigate the system.

I have advised what services you need linking including the decluttering services you have requested in the email trial below.
I will be over looking everything regarding the support coordination and if you want to reach out of any assistance or have any concerns, you are still more than welcome to contact myself.

Rachael will link the services with details below and be in contact shortly. Please allow her some time to settle in and get to work ??

I'm a little unsure what you are asking here Jackie. I understand you have asked the question, but I have provided you with answers.

There is nothing required for you to put in place regarding the services you want.
You only need to provide the dates and times of the decluttering service for me to link this service. You have requested this service to which I can implement for you.

Dates and times –
What days are good for you?
Any particular time you would like the services to come to your home?

For the services to be paid, I will relay with the plan manager for invoicing to be paid correctly under the NDIS price guide. Again, just to clarify, I don't need anything from you. I have all your details to give the provider. You will just need to confirm the dates you are requesting decluttering.

Hi Jackie,

Hope you are well and had a well-rested weekend.
I apologize if I have not been clear enough with my communication.

I have attached your current summary for your total amount of funds you have available at this moment in time.

You will be able to utilize funding for decluttering/ cleaning from the area of daily activities. This is where your support workers, cleaners and any form of domestic assistance come out of.
This broken down to 52 weeks is $620.00 per week of funding you can utilize.

Your currently have the assigned assistance coming out of your core area of the plan –
2 hours per fortnight of domestic/cleaning

4 hours per fortnight - Food prep –

And 6 hours per fortnight of support work

8 hours per fortnight of personal care

This is a total amount of 20 hours per fortnight of supports in place. You are funded for 22 hours per fortnight.
Do you have service agreements in place for the supports above? As they are from agencies, they will be charging at the NDIS guideline rates which is a high amount. You are plan managed and can use your funds at a flexible rate.
For example, a support worker per the NDIS guidelines is $55.47 per hour. You can negotiate with a independent support worker for $30 per hour, where this will free more funding up for you.

Its entirely up to you what you would like to do and if you would like to go ahead with services for decluttering. We can book this in for 2 hours, but from what you have

Hi Jakki,

Sorry for the late response today, I have had many emergencies with clients today which has resulted with me consistently being on the phone and meetings.

I understand you did have a chat with Leah, this was based on the numbers you advised her off. I have checked your portal and you are tracking nicely and have room to move around in your core part of your plan. You are funding for assistance with domestic and we can set aside a few hours for a once of decluttering service if need be. I understand the conversation with Leah is completely conflicting with mine right now, but I will track your funding and ensure you do not run low in your plan dates.

If your happy with me to go ahead and link the service, please advise of the dates and times you would like this service for ??

I have also requested a invoice to be sent through for the chopping board for payment, still awaiting a response ??

Good Afternoon,

We have commenced Jackie Dodds to FFG for support coordination. We have been previously sent a link to access her portal to track the funding accurately but unfortunately this was sent to the junk mail and had a timer on it.

Can I kindly request a new link be sent to my email address?

Thank you kindly
