Subject: Kylan White reports, as discussed

Hi Luke & Terri,

As discussed, please find attached Kylan's NDIS Plan from 3/11/2020 to 3/11/2021 and all of his last lot of therapist reports. Please note that the Speech report confirmed that he met the criteria for a moderate receptive and expressive language disorder (this was not previously picked up). I have also attached Kylan's pediatrician ADHD letter confirming his diagnosis, and ASD assessment letter from the Speech Therapist and Clinical Psychology.

Please note that I have not sent the final reports to Kylan's LAC yet, I will be emailing these to her sometime on Monday (she is off Mondays). I did mention verbally to her that I was just diagnosed adhd/add last week but I have not mentioned this in the carers impact statement. The reports that I have to submit to her for Kylan's review is:

- ORS Behavioural Management Plan (which has not been signed by any therapists and waiting to hear back from the therapist there to go over the final plan in an appointment, as we were away but I did email her again last week).
- Letter from Wanneroo Aquamotion (swimming).
- FEAL - Equine Therapy letter.
- Carers Impact Statement.
- Support Worker letter.

I have also attached the medical certificates from my Mum (Mary White) and my sister (Megan White) who reside with us, as they were supplied to NDIA in 2020 at their last reviews and it states neither of them is an informal support due to their medical concerns. I can supply my Mary's GP Medical for that I submitted to Centrelink for Carers Allowance if this helps? I was going to email it to Kylan's LAC at Wanslea, as documentation as proof of my carer's role with my Mum as well but not sure if they need this or not. I have also attached the Carers Impact Statement that I have written (not yet emailed to the LAC) as well and I do talk about a lot of daily things that happen and the dynamics of our household. I hope I have thought to include everything and apologies if I have shared anything that is not relevant.

Please let me know if there are any other documents that you require or anything else. Thank you for your assistance.

Kind Regards
Kylie White
