This afternoon i have received a couple of SMS's from Penny. as they are quite long i can not add them as a attachment. please see below for an exact copy of what was stated in the SMS's from and to penny.

From Penny:
Hi Alex
Can it be ordered by some where in stock.

My support worker says she has clients that go shopping and spend thousands on gardening stuff, gardening is their therapy, one of their ndis goals.
I asked her to ask them how they have so much money and can just buy things easily. Not buying it first then stuffing around with invoices.
They replied they have "awesome plan managers".
Mind you they have 300,000 in the plan.

If I go out into the community with my sw and we buy lunch is that paid for?

Do I get paid for fuel when I go on respite?

I'm trying very hard to get my credit card paid off and back on my feet. So is not easy for me to buy a chair that I can use in workshop so I can still work, or a commercial blender so I'm not using my arms.
Made my first small soap batch since breaking my shoulder, yesterday. Now my right arm is in heaps of pain as well. Stick blending!
I am still in debt because I paid for things up front and didn't get reimbursed. It's 70$ a month in intetest. I need business cards urgently too. There's allot I need to do to get my business up and running again

Form myself to Penny:
Good afternoon penny hope you are well :)

I can definitely have a look for you and let you know once I have found a place that stocks it not a problem at all :)

These are very good questions and to be honest I don't have all the answers right now, leave it with me if you do not mind and I will get an answer to you ASAP!

I saw you email this morning to and it's ok you don't need to be sorry as I said these things happen some time and it's ok :) I will get in to the watch as if your OT has stated that you require it, that makes things a lot easier to be paid back or to get it funded instantly. Leave this with me also and I will let you know, the only thing I ask for is if you could possibly get the OT to write this out in a letter so when we give it to the NDIS they are not going to make life difficult. Because they can and will if we don't have that letter.
