Hi
Thanks Chloe and Breeanna,
I would like to be able to show you what needs to be done, so can we make the first couple of appointments later in the day.
I can't get downstairs before about 2pm. 4pm is usual time I go downstairs to do things.
It's almost 3am, And its usual I'm awake at this time.
There is heaps of work to be done. I'm a hoarder and have been for years. I didn't plan on disability stopping me in my tracks.
I believe it best if 2 people came for 4 hours. Is that possible?
I'm planning on moving so a huge declutter is needed.
There's alot of work so if you could please book it for a weekly visit would that be possible?
Also what are your skills and strong points and are you experienced in organising?
I'm eager to start when you're ready. I'm Currently doing my wardrobe.
Thank you very much.
Kind Regards
Penny

Thank you so much for arranging this!

I believe she will be home for this if not I will ask what will happen.

For the decluttering I think it is just the hold house but I don’t believe it is bad, I have cc’d Penny into this so she is aware of what is happening and when.

Hi Terri,

As the SDA was not approved at the time of plan approval it was not able to be added in at that time

My understanding is once you have sourced a provider that fits in with the information provided from the SDA panel an early review will need to take place. In saying that if you come back to me once this has been completed I may be able to get approval to complete a light touch review if no other major changes are required to the plan.

I have been doing some research to find a cleaner in Bunbury, I have posted a Facebook add in NDIS independent providers and support, Cleaning and organising inspiration, NDIS cleaning and gardening. I have also called Bunbury cleaning services all big and small jobs but they stated that they don't have any availability and i attempted to call Bunbury cleaning services there were not available, I sent through a enquiry to care.com for a domestic cleaners and now waiting for a email back.

I have sent through a enquiry and used my email so will be hearing something back from them , I called F&D home and office cleaners and i asked if they have worked with people on the NDIS before and he stated yes and aske what the disability was and i stated its not a physical disability it is a mental one. he stated that he doesnt think he can do cleaning for the client. I have sent a enquiry to Enhanced Cleaning Services and now waiting for a email back.

I called Elite Cleaning WA to see if they have availability for on going house cleaning for one of our clients in Bunbury and work with clients who are on NDIS, she stated yes she does and I asked if they do ongoing cleaning she stated yes she does. I asked what the hourly rate is she she stated that it is $57.50 plus GSP and they also bring all the cleaning stuff.

I have informed her with the clients disability and that it is a mental one an she has been through a few cleaners and she stated that is fine and she would have to ask if one of the more experience cleaners would be comfortable doing that and she then asked what days and hours would she like to do. I stated that maybe for now we can do 2 days a week for 2 hours each day, she stated that what she will do is talk to a few girls and she will get back to me. She asked what suburb she is in and i told her and she had a look on how far away it is. She stated that it is roughly a 40 minute drive so she will have to have a talk and get back to me, I have given her my email and she will send a email back.

You are entitled up to 14 days of respite per year, this is with any NDIS plan. Speak with Chloe on where and what you would like to do with the respite ??
Regarding the transport costs, the planner did not implement this in to the plan and I'm assuming this was from the comment of " I don't like going in to the community".

The meals are NDIA managed and we will reach out to Chorus today in Bunbury as this is a service they offer in hope we can get this up and running asap.
Regarding your ad, I will bounce of the participants as discussed yesterday in hope we can put someone in place for your website asap.

Hi Penny,

I'm sorry if I have not communicated enough to you in the past weeks. Chloe stated she has been in contact daily with you regarding telehealth appt for your ADHD management which is fantastic and from what I can see in the system, she has also linked a interview for domestic assistance. Chloe will keep you updated in this instance. The phyc unfortunately is out our control. Chloe will be able to update you on the movement with the appt tomorrow.

Regarding the plan, we did get a $3,884.27 increase in funding. Are you happy with the outcome of this plan?
We can put in cleaning for 10 hours per week, if you require more assistance and more hours please check in with Chloe and she can walk you through this.

You have a total amount of 144 hours of employment assistance which will help in gaining an assistant. Would you like assistance in creating a add for someone to help you with your business? All they will need to do is bill through to the NDIS on the item number below –
04_801_0133_5_1 @ $57.10 per hour. Your plan is plan managed which opens up the flexibility in supports where you can negotiate this hourly rate.

Regarding the AT
This is low cost assistive technology that has been funded. Anything below the $1500 will not require assistive technology form. You will need to provide the quotes which will match your goals in your NDIS plan. If you require more technology, we can have assistive technology forms completed by an OT for this to be added in to the already existing funding.

Regarding your housing options, because you own your own home this has come in to factor and the Functional capacity assessment weighed heavy on this as we originally went in for home modifications and due to the discussion of potentially moving home the NDIS will not fund for home modifications.

If you would like the freedom of information from the NDIS with all the planning notes and the why, Chloe can file this for you asap. This is a 90 page document that goes through why the NDIS have declined certain supports.

I hope I have answered some questions for you Penny ??

Hi Terri
What happened everyone just stopped talking to me
Was the plan a good outcome or not?
Should I have got all my invoices paid first along with the intercom before the plan review? No one told me this.
I'm about 300 out of pocket.
Was travel granted?
Is AT only 1500?
I need to request a chair, high chairs for the kitchen so I can finish tasks that in unable to, which is OFTEN mainly because I haven't had a massage in like 6 months, this is so frustrating. Everything moves so slow and every additional day makes me want to depart the living.

So many things were positive when I met Vida and .....
And not much has come to fruition. We talked about sound proofing my room so I can sleep. Addressing my temperature dysfunction.
We talked about housing, carers, psychosocial regular recovery, monthly massage which is a vital component. psychologists and psychiatrist and every problem I have in between. Someone to admin for me, everything I could ever want and never had.
What's the outcome regarding the housing request?
What happened to the "no wait" psych?

No one has told me ANYTHING.

Hi,

Thank you for sending this report through, I will keep you updated on the outcome of the review ??

Are you possibly able to amend this report and have a break down of how much hours you recommend as a medical practitioner for the yearly plan and if this will increase Penny's capacity?
This assists the NDIS to break down the hours that Penny will need for her upcoming plan.

Look forward to hearing from you ??

Hi Andrew,

Sorry for the delay in response regarding the template. Please advise, this may have been a form of miscommunication. I offered to assist in giving key points to creating a NDIS report to ensure we have the sufficient information that the NDIS require for potential approval of funding. I have added the below, and I hope this helps. If you require further support with his report, please don't hesitate to give me a call on the email below ☺

Demonstrate progress towards goals
- Does your report include a summary of the supports provided?
- Have you provided evidence of previous therapies trialled?
- Have you measured and provided detail about how a participant's functional ability is progressing towards their therapy outcomes and NDIS goals?

Example:
A participant's goal could be to increase their ability to get up from a bed or a chair and walk independently within their home.
A 25% increase in standing balance and lower limb strength (therapy outcome) will increase the participant's ability to be independently mobile in their home (NDIS goal).
The observed 30% improvement in mobility, strength and balance (therapy outcome) will support attendance at 50% or more volunteer activities per week (NDIS goal).
- Have you documented any barriers or challenges in the participant's progress?
- Have you explained why the therapy outcome was not achieved?
- Have you considered or needed to review your therapy approach to help the participant overcome these barriers or challenges?

Define additional supports
- Have you considered what additional informal, community or mainstream supports could assist the participant in pursuing their goal?
- Have you recommended or referred the participant to any informal, community or mainstream supports?

Provide detailed recommendations – really important area
- Have you provided clear evidence-based recommendations?
- Are your recommended supports linked to the participant's therapy outcomes and NDIS goals?
- Do the recommended supports represent value for money?
- Are there other comparable low cost options that would achieve the same outcomes?
- Is there evidence that the supports are likely to substantially improve the life stage outcomes for, and be of long term benefit to the participant
- Will the supports be likely to reduce the cost of funding of supports for the participant in the long term
- Will the support increase the participant's independence and reduce the participants needs for other kinds of supports ate well within the participant's life and environment?

- Have you stated the risk of no supports being provided?

Include service details in your report

For example:

- type of service
- therapeutic approach used
- duration of supports
- frequency of support
- intended outcome
- challenges (technological, physical, administrative)use of therapeutic tools is relevant
- justifications to support the recommendations.

Hi Richard,

No home modifications was done previously? I spoke with previous provider who incorporated this in to Penny's current plan. Your allied therapy(previous provider) is not registered for home modifications and was unable to conduct this?
Can I please have this investigated as this was not completed and that invoice should have not been paid.

Please keep me updated,

Good Morning, Dr Loryn Geyer

Thank you very much for your detailed response regarding Lorraine and her supports. As you know, Penny can be in extreme amounts of pain on a daily basis.
Penny needs assistance with the below therapies to build her capacity in mobility and functionality.

- Chiropractic
- Physiotherapist
- Psychology
- Support workers to attend and assist with domestic duties/food shopping ect
- Pain Management
- Home modifications to assist with mobility

I will start asking all the mainstream supports in the Perth Region in hope I can find someone who will be able to assist Penny. Penny does not answer her phone, and does not awake until 2pm daily due to her sleep apnoea.
This makes it extremely difficult to be able to service Penny with all appointments she need to be attending to help with her mental and physical help. This is where I can step in and book supports workers, appointments and remind Penny about upcoming appointments. So far so good, as every appt I have booked for her she attends. She just needs that assistance.

Penny is not funded near enough for the supports she needs long term wise, hence why I'm seeking as much medical evidence as possible.

Thank you for your time, as I know how busy you must be right now.
Look forward to speaking with you soon.

Terri R

as chiropractic? Or more funding for transport? Or home relocation?

I have attached the referral letter I most recently sent for a psychologist that she could access via telehealth with no out of pocket fee. Penny had requested they email her rather than ring because she doesn't answer the phone for numbers she doesn't recognise but she said she hadn't heard from them. I told her I had requested they email rather than ring, but she said maybe it is better if they text her because she doesn't read all her emails either.
She was previously seeing someone through Mindsonline as well.

I agree pain specialist review is appropriate, however I am not aware of any access to this outside the public system (with long waiting list) that isn't too prohibitively expensive for Penny – if you can suggest someone else I am happy to redirect the referral.

Penny would also like to see a psychiatrist by telehealth without out of pocket expenses to prescribe her dexamfetamine – the psuchiatrist she has seen down here insists on seeing her in person in Busselton and is expensive. I had previously referred her to a psychiatrist at epsychiatry (online) but the psychiatrist was not accepting any more referrals for ADHD patients, and again I am not aware of any other aveues for accessing this. If you know of anything please let me know.

Kind regards,
Dr Loryn Geyer

Good Afternoon,

Thank you for taking my call regarding Lorraine Alford, who also goes by the name of Penny.
I would like to advise of the upcoming review for Penny via NDIS. This is a very important period for Penny as we are asking for more assistance with supports to assist Penny with her mobility throughout the year.

Can I kindly request any medical information that may be of benefit for Penny and the upcoming review. The NDIS is very evidence based and medical records are very heavy documentation going in to any form of review.

Medical reports from –
Balingup Surgery
Eaton Medical Centre
Forrest Family Centre

Penny also advised she is in dire need of a Psycologist to assist with her current mental state and has previously missed many appointments. As a support coordinator, this is where I come in to link the services and ensure she attends.
Can I kindly request a referral for Psychology, I'm more than happy to forward to Psycologist in the Perth Region who can conduct Zoom appointments with no waiting periods.
Penny is also in need of Pain Management and has been advised of a waiting period of 12 months. Again, I can link to mainstream supports to assist in this area with no waiting periods.

More than happy to take a phone call regarding Lorraine to help understand what my role is.
I have also attached consent forms to talk and act on the behalf of Penny.

Hi Chantelle,

Thank you for your prompt reply and response. The adjustments you have made fall much more in line with what penny is going through. I completely understand and appreciate that it has to be in line with NDIS guideline and appreciate your cooperation in the matter so that we can get this right for our client.

In regards to the below statement, can I kindly ask that you amend this and explain it more clearly and break it down for the agency. Basically Penny had a business and you are correct she shut her business down because she could not run it on her own. However she is wanting to have a purpose in life and has asked and requested for us to link her to a website builder and specialist which we have done. Penny want to create a micro enterprise and start working online and shipping her products to people and making a living this way with some assistance of support and support workers. She has requested 250 hours of support for micro enterprise funding to aid her in achieving this goal.

If you require to confirm this with penny, please send her a sms or call her after 3 pm as she wakes up late and stay awake at night.

At home business –
“This has since been shut down due to Penny being unable to manage the physical requirements of running a business”
Penny is currently finalising her website for her at home business, who I’m relaying with daily.
During the assessment, Penny advised me that she is no longer working in this business, therefore, this information was based on Penny’s report during the assessment.

Hi Chantelle,

Thank you for your detailed report.
I would like you to see the highlighted areas in the report, I would like discuss a few points below that are very conflicting -

Medications –
Penny also takes dexamphetamine for daily use of 45mg, this has not been added.

Locations -
“Prior to moving to Mullalyup, a small town south of Donnybrook, Penny lived in Millbridge. Penny reported that in her previous accommodation, she received a higher level of support, however, had difficulty coping with her mental health due to the noise surrounding her. Penny needs more support including expressing a want to move to Bunbury to be closer to her son

-Millbridge is located in Bunbury

“Penny relocated from Millbridge after being advised that this location is quieter Penny has difficulty in environments with large levels of traffic and people, due to the noises that come with this. She advised she noticed a significant decline in her mental health as a result.”
What is your recommendation, as this is very conflicting information?

Exploration of accommodation options –
No recommendations for complex home modifications as stated in NDIS plan.

SDA –
Penny is not eligible for SDA as she owns her own home, as discussed in first consultation.

At home business –
“This has since been shut down due to Penny being unable to manage the physical requirements of running a business”
Penny is currently finalising her website for her at home business, who I’m relaying with daily.

ntly stated in her NDIS plan and why we went ahead with the consultation. Neither you or I, submit the approve button for this to be funded and should at all times keep our personal opinions out of what is requested and needed as stated by the participant who is paying us for our reports. But with your report, Penny is in dire need of home modifications urgently, and which as you yourself, have acknowledged she is at risk.

This is deemed reasonable and necessary as per the NDIS act.

WOW . JUST Wow Terri,
I had no idea and immediately I understand why she didn't come. but no way expected all this.
Not EVER did I accuse her or even think that she stole anything. No way is this true. 100% honestly I told her of all the things that have been stolen in the past. I was sharing but no way did I even think that about her.
again as I mentioned in my email to you complaining about her not listening.
she offered to get the medical supplies, on her way through donnybtook cos i can't get there and I was run out. she said, anytime you need anything let me know. she said she was more than happy to.
I did say maybe ndis can pay for it, as it's related to my disability, she told me, that's not allowed and I said, oh.ok.
I was only asking/ suggesting, and I learned that when she said that.
I've never done anything like that only talked it, "I wonder IF ndis can fund it as its related to one of my goals".

she talked me into taking the jbhifi device over 3 times, continually saying she goes there ALL THE TIME and is no problem at all.
As far as I'm aware I've Never disrespected her. she's too young to have had any experience with anyone with a mental disorder especially mood disregulation or BPD. I know it's possible I've said something taken the wrong way, but nothing intentional. I thought I handled all the fuck ups quite well. I did NOT treat her poorly and thus offends me. She also promised me absolute confidentiality!

I ASKED HER if she had Seen my thumb drive cos she cleaned table.
is her first job and sometimes she had to work the whole time.
I don't think she is used to that.
I'm sure she knows my thumb drive ended up in the bin, she had to defend herself if she wants to keep her job. These people who know all about ndis think it's an easy job and a quick buck, sorry to say, that's been my experience.
However I told you weeks ago she wasn't suitable and Please keep interviewing people.
I was teaching her, when she half mopped I said "sorry that's not good enough, see all that dirt under there?" she said don't apologise.
So there is and might be some truth to what she had told you but LACK of understanding and inexperience is the primary cause I suspect. I DID NOT do the other things she said.

I had NO IDEA she thought any of it. and never said anything.
I mentioned she was making my life worse, remember? I didn't tell her that but she made a hell of a mess of things.
Jason watched her and said where do you find these people mum, she's totally useless. (in private).

fe, I've been grossly misunderstood.
This and the investigation makes it look like Im not honest and I take advantage.
I still don't know all the ndis rules but It does hurt to be judged by people even if there are lies. Plenty of elaborated points made to justify others actions.
I'm fed up with it.

hi Terri
email seems to be empty?
How you going?

Terri how much funds do i have?

In desperation I ABSOLUTELY POSITIVELY NEED A PROFESSIONAL ORGANISER.

Jess is good as support worker as company.
Even with constant Reminding The Most important Thing is to finish the job. She just cant do it. She left a tub of dirty water and spry bottle on the carpet this week, and the dogs knocked it over, and other containers just left on the floor, container for batterys and other bits like that and I didn't know they were there. It's a pattern.
The whole point was clean the table and sort out my meds n stuff. We worked on this a couple hours, then I left her for 30 minutes while I raced off to dr appt.

Don't get me wrong, she's lovely and caring and positive.
But I need help right now to make my walking areas safe.
I fall over stuff alot, and accidentally knock stuff over that I can't retrieve.
My depression comes from the state of my space, more than anything else. The CHAOS it creates in my whole life, mind, emotions, and with the right help, it shouldn't take that long.

Please can you find someone, from Bridgetown, greenbushes. kirup, donnybrook, Balingup, even Bunbury and manjimup if we can't find someone closer.
Important to save on travel costs atm.
To help me do this...

Hi Penny,

Thank you for the detailed email. Please see the break down of funding based on your current amount left in the NDIS plan.

Core Funding - $11,620.45

lan come through.

Again, I don’t want you running out of funding, but neither do I want to take your choice and control away. I can only advise. The last thing we both want, is you without supports again.

Can you please advise if you would like to go forward with more supports in organization ?

Warm Regards,
Terri Roberts
