Subject: Re: Maddie Robinson

Good afternoon,

I am writing to you to report an incident that occurred last night at your hotel, Quest in South Perth.
Our mutual client, Maddie Robinson, contacted our Director Vida Reid at 7.13 am this morning to inform her that she had been locked out of the premises, and stuck in a stairwell at your hotel from 10.30pm last night until 7 am this morning.
Maddie stated that she had gone downstairs to collect her online shopping order last night but when she tried to get back to her room she was unable to. In an attempt to get back in, she entered the level 2 fire exit to progress to level 3, however the door locked behind her and she ended up trapped in the stairwell all night, frightened and cold, (with no phone), banging on the door for help. There was noone around and no receptionist or staff available to assist her.
My first question is: how does this happen? And secondly why does the swipe card not work for the emergency exit, as it should be unlocked at all times??? This seems very hazardous and incomprehensible , not to mention a safety risk for any client of yours.
This is a massive concern to us, not to mention traumatic, especially for Maddie as a young person with a disability! Imagine if this was a young child!!!

Please acknowledge this email and reply back to me urgently, as this constitutes a serious violation of basic of Work, Health and Safety regulations, and poses a great risk for all clients and any future clients we were going to refer to your business.

Kind Regards,

Rachael T

Hi Maddy,

Okay no worries I have sent Luke an email to see what days he is available, I can get a list together if you like and you can have a look and see if anything suits your needs.

If your happy for me to book in for Ally to come on every Wednesdays at say maybe 11am so she can be back for 4pm to pick up Vida's kid. We can book it in for 2 hours so from 11am to 1pm.
Don't feel like you should know what to do for when the support worker comes that's up to the support worker to figure out and if your happy to do it then that's great.

Its really to help you gain you're in confidence the community and to help with your goals that have been implemented in your NDIS plan. Anything that you struggle with let Ally know and she will try her best to help you in that area.

Kind Regards,
Chloe ??

Okay that sounds great! If he able to come this Friday I could meet up with you then otherwise next week is fine as there's not really much to discuss. I was just wondering with using the funding for the plan what things could I be using other than support worker? Okay great when should I start seeing Ally ? I'm not really sure maybe Wednesday once every 1 or 2 weeks but I'm free most days anyway. Also I'm not really sure what to do or what a support worker is supposed to help me with? Is it just to get outside the house for a bit?
Also on the next plan is that where I'll be focusing more on future goals like studying/part time job/moving out etc?

Perfect, I will organise this right away.
When Is it a suitable time for myself and Luke to attend?

Perhaps if Joseph is available we he can meet us after 1 hour of us being there.

Hi All,

Thank you Terry for the detailed email and attachments. We are going for a SIL housing option for Maddy and with a well written FCA and SIL report and a progress report from us this can be achieved.

In regards to behaviour, we can organise for a Positive behaviour supports practitioner to attend to Maddy alongside myself maybe to look at a whole picture and work with her OT for best ways to move forward. Let me know what your thoughts are on this.

We agree that Maddy requires the extensive supports and it would be a good transition for her to start doing activities and going out more often.

We have The Hive starting some activities at our centre on Saturday 28th august and fortnightly form there on doing flower decorations and balloon garland and party décor. Just fun activities which participants will enjoy. Nothing too full on.

I can organise for Maddy to be picked up on Saturday if you like and be brought here and back by chloe her recovery coach or another support worker if you like. Please let me know

Vida Reid
Founding Executive Director at Forward Focused Group

pertaining to my daughter Madeline (Maddy) Robinson.

I know you indicated you will make your own conclusions, however I'll give you a summary of where I see Maddy needing support/assistance, based on my observations of her, in dot point form below:

- As mentioned in our telephone conversation, my psychologist believes Maddy's prognosis - based on his analysis of the above reports, is that Maddy is likely to stay the same in the future as she is now. I had hoped that by around say age 40, that Maddy would have "seen the light" so to speak & become a more independent & functioning member of society. She is currently on a Disability Support Pension;
- Given that I & Maddy's two siblings (Luke 22 & Ellen 19), are her only immediate family, my psychologist has recommended to me - in the strongest terms, that one of the key components of her NDIS funding is for her to be taught enough basic skills to move to some form of supported independent living in the short to medium term. The reasoning for this primarily is that if I were to pass away unexpectedly (I'm 62 now & not going to be around for ever), there is no one able to care for her & that it would be grossly unfair on my other two children to be given the enormous burden of looking after her, given that they're only young themselves + also have their own lives to lead. On closer reflection, I agree this is, or should be, the highest priority for Maddy. (TOP PRIORITY ISSUE);
- Maddy has no ability to regulate her behaviour. For example, in the Centrelink pension she receives, not one cent is saved, it is all spent on on-line shopping (makeup & other cosmetic items, dietary supplements & more recently vaping). She pays no bills & has no appreciation of things such as electricity, rates etc, so this is a basic life skill she needs to learn, but is not at all interested in learning (HIGH PRIORITY ISSUE);
- Personal hygiene is another area of concern. Maddy went eight (8) months without showering last year. Her rationale is that because she doesn't go anywhere, she can't see the point, however, her family have had to endure this & she has steadfastly refused to shower despite many requests/demands to do so. She will occasionally shower if someone is coming to see her for an appointment. Her sleep hygiene is also poor as she stays up all night (every night) & sleeps during the day – this despite many health professionals recommending to her to adopt normal sleep behaviour. (HIGH PRIORITY ISSUE);
- Unfortunately, Maddy has no friends & rarely leaves the house – which exacerbates the showering issues. This concerns me greatly as she has a lonely, largely disengaged life - including from her family. HIGH PRIORITY ISSUE;
- Cleanliness is a significant issue

– Maddy leaves mess anywhere & everywhere & makes no effort to clean anything up. As I stated, the cat “pooed” on the floor in her room at least 6 months ago & it’s still sitting there – I’ve previously cleaned up cat poo in her room but have left it this time & told her it’s up to her to do it now. Further to the above, she refuses to comply with even the most basic of requests or instructions. For example, she has recently started vaping which I’m not happy about, however, she vapes in the house & has flatly refused to stop despite me demanding that she doesn’t do it in the house HIGH PRIORITY ISSUE.

Given that Maddy has previously been diagnosed with:

- Borderline Personality Disorder;
- Asperger’s Syndrome (since renamed);
- Anxiety & Depression.

09/08/2021	Chloe osborne	5 hrs 45 minutes	Meeting	Meeting with Maddy	 Large Note printed below.	$492.32

Left the office at 11:40 to arrive at Maddy's house at 12:40 as I was driving to Maddy's house I had Terry SMS me asking if I could possibly come at 1:30 as Maddy did not communicate with him and informed him that I was coming sooner, I then called Terry to inform him that I have been speaking with Maddy and we have arranged for me to leave at 11:40 to get to hers at 12:40.

Once I have arrived at Maddy's I asked how Maddy has been and she stated she has been better, I asked Maddy that if she wanted to go to the beach and we can sit and talk there but she stated she wasn't dressed and didn't feeling like going out of the house. I stated that is okay and we can stay there I the asked Maddy how everything was with her dad as she mentioned in the SMS that if there was any way to get stuff done with NDIS for Maddy trying to be more independent from her dad for a couple of months as Maddy stated her and her dad are not getting along and it has gotten quite bad.

I stated that if she wanted to have a talk and to let just talk to get a few things off her chest and she stated that they haven't been getting along and Maddy doesn't know how to feel as its hard and she feels alone and that she has no one to talk to, Maddy stated that her and her dad argue a lot and they can never work things through also Maddy stated that her dad isn't letting Maddy try and be independent as he hold all her money and doesn't her have any of it and when Maddy ask for some he said no.

I stated that is there any reasons why he wont let you be In control of your money or he just wants to hold it to make sure its not all getting spent at once, She stated that she hasn't done anything to lose his trust to hold her own money but he thinks that when she does have some money she will spend it on things she doesn't need.

Maddy feels as if he doesn't really understand that she is allowed to spend things of make up and clothes ect as she is a young girl and is allowed to buy some things for her self, Maddy feels as if it would be different if her mum was here as she thinks they would have a better bond as female and female would and feels that's why she doesn't have a connections with her dad. I asked if she has tried to sit down with her dad and talk bout these things in a calm matter with out getting frustrated or upset and she stated yes she does but he doesn't listen to her and then they just get angry at each other and nothing gets resolved.

I stated what I do when I don't get along with my parents and I just stop and take a minute to think and realise how id feel if they was gone and I say that I would be lost with out and and we have to make the time and get along as they wont be here forever and Maddy agreed with me and said she will give that a try but she feels that her dad wont listen and she feels as if he doesn't like her, I asked if she is close with her sister or if she talks to her and she stated she doesn't talk to her at all like they do not say a word to each other.

I asked Maddy was there something that ahs made it be like that between them and she stated that no she just feels like her sister doesn't want anything to do with her and when it was her birthday she didn't even say happy birthday, I asked when the last time they spoke and she stated she didn't even know but it was probably over a year ago. I sated if she has thought about having a chat to her sister and seeing if they can work things out as it might make her feel better and less alone as it would be hard for her to be in a house where her sister doesn't talk to her and she just ahs no one to talk to and that will also be a reason why she is always feeling alone and down.

I informed Maddy about my past and the struggles with my daily life and how I try to cope with it and to just let Maddy know that I understand how she feels and that I'm here for when she needs to talk ill be able to understand, Maddy stated she felt sorry for me and didn't realise I went through something like that as I look like a very strong girl and have been coping with it very well. Maddy stated that she feels like she can really connect with me and feels comfortable talking with me as we have similar situations, I stated to Maddy that the way I try and deal with my anxiety and stress and breathing in and out to calm myself down and it works Maddy stated she will give it a try and see how it works with her.

I stated that once she starts to get her support workers in and they start to take her out it will get easier and she agreed on that.

I left Maddy's home at 2:50 and it was an hour to get back to the office so I arrived at the office at 4pm

22/07/2021	Chloe osborne	5 hrs	Meeting	Notes from Meeting with Maddy	 Large Note printed below.	$428.10

I was informed by service manager Leah that Maddy requested for me to go and meet her.

I left at 1pm to get to Maddy's at 2pm for the meeting, once I got there we spoke about what is needed and what Maddy would like me to do for her.

Terry (Dad) stated they don't know anything about NDIS and not sure what Maddy is needing to move forward and get what she needs in life to help her with socialising in the community and being able to make friends so she is able to go place and be more independent as her dad is 60 years of age and is very worried about Maddy's independent skills and he stated she would be able to live without him and as she does not have a mum as she passed away when Maddy was 11 years of age she depends on her dad for everything.

I asked if Maddy knows what a support worker is and she stated no she doesn't, I informed Maddy what they do and what they can do to improve her goals. Maddy would be comfortable with a young female around her age group. She asked how long can she have a support worker for and I stated it is all up to her and whatever hours she would like she can get that as long as she has enough in her plan, I stated that for example Maddy can have a support worker come once a week for 2 hours and if she feels that it is too long she is able to cut it short and say she has had enough for the day.

Terry then asked if I would be able to do that for some days and I stated I can have a chat with Vida and see what she says, I stated that Maddy can have a support worker for once every fortnight and I could come as a recovery coach on that odd week to also help Maddy with her socialising skills as she gets very bad anxiety when in big crowds and in public.

I asked if Maddy had any therapies in please and she stated no she doesn't but when Vida and Leah went for the first initial they spoke about that Maddy is needing her plan to be increased as it will not last her for a whole year, Maddy and I spoke about what the OT will do and why does she need one I stated in the meeting you can speak about all her problems and what she is struggling with and mention she is needing a increase for the whole plan and will need to be added in the report for studying, employment, looking at possible ILO or SIL as Maddy is needing to be more independent for daily living.

I informed Maddy that I will look for a OT for her and I then asked Maddy if when the OT is booked where would she like the appointments to be and she stated if it is aloud for them to go to the home, once I find a OT I will inform Maddy just so she is aware of who her OT is.

Maddy used to go see a psychiatrist and there was a few report that he dad for Maddy, I stated I will give Subiaco mental health a call to see i f I can get all the reports and that can also go towards get review once all the documents are together. Maddy then asked about respite and what happens with that, I stated you would usually get roughly 14 days a year for respite but if it isn't in her plan it can still come out of something else and asked what can you do.

I informed Maddy that for example you can stay at a hotel for 3 or 4 night and a support worker can be there with her if she would prefer that and they can assist Maddy into coaching her into how to meal prep to help her be more independent and say if Maddy wants to go somewhere they can take her and do whatever Maddy wants to do.

I then left Maddy's home at 3:30 to arrive at the office at 4:30.
