24/09/2021	Rachael Thomas	30 minutes	General Notes	Phone call	SC and Vida spoke with Maggie May to alleviate her concerns about having a new support coordinator, as Maggie May explained that she shuts down with unfamiliar people and places. Vida assured Maggie May that she would still be here, and would oversee everything. A referral has been made for an FCA and reports will need to be gathered from support worker in support of the review. SC Rachael discussed the next steps that are going to happen in regard to going for a review. Maggie May also mentioned the last review, and how uncomfortable she felt when she received a phone call from a delegate who dominated the conversation, and did not allow Maggie May time to digest her thoughts. Maggie May has been advised to practise strategies with her support worker, so that she could learn to say no comfortably. SC will contact support worker and/or send links re: behaviour strategies. Maggie May will said she would be interested in attending a flower arranging class on a Saturday, with her support worker. She was advised that she could either Uber in with a support worker or we could arrange an independent support worker to bring her. SC will text Maggie next week to confirm if she wants to attend.	$50.07
