Hi Kirrllie,

I have spoken in depth with Meghan's NDIS planner this morning.

I spoke about how complex Meghan can be with cancelling appointments and asked for her direction on this one regarding housing solutions.
A incident did occur late Friday afternoon, where Meghan put her head through a door and knocked herself unconscious. This was pure frustration regarding services linked.
This is making my job extremely difficult and need the NDIS to side with us here.

The planning meeting has been pushed out and I need to advise the Planner when we are ready with all correct sufficient reporting.
The planner has recommended to do a Housing Exploration Report along with the home and living supports template to be completed. I understand my request has been back and forth but due to the many changes of Meghan's mental health, we need to perfect these reports and ensure we are doing the correct reports that the NDIS are requesting.

Please advise what time you would like to book Meghan in for so I can ensure she has full understanding on these appointments.

Thank you again,

Hi Elanor,

I just wanted to touch base and provide you with some updates that I will need assistance with -

Employment Services Complaint
I have spoken with the department regarding the complaint lodged on Friday afternoon. The department advised I'm not the next nominee and will need this to further investigate the complaint. This form will need to be signed by Meghan, once signed I can send off and finalise the complaint. Please see attached.

For us to amend Meghan's phone bill we will need consent on Meghan's behalf to pay the bill as Amasym are refusing to take payment as we are not a nominee. Can you please help Meghan make this call?

I spoke with Meghan's planner today and will send through an email for Meghan to consent for me to speak on the behalf during planning reviews ect. We will be reaching out to the OT today to discuss the report that is currently being written. Meghan has cancelled this appointment with the OT again today, which will delay this even further.

I spoke with the planner and advised due to the complexities of Meghan, her eligibility is no longer. Do you have anything in writing to provide me?
You did mention, St Barts are no longer able to provide the services but also have a duty of care. I'm currently trying to create a good case for eligibility of housing solutions for Meghan but need help on this one. Let me know what you can and cannot provide for the NDIS to be advised.

If you can please get this back to me asap for this all to be completed that will be fab!
Thanks Elanor

Dear NDIS Authorised Officers and MPS,

I am a support coordinator for the participant, Meghan Goodwin.
I am gravely concerned for my client as she has been referred to the mental health department by her appointed GP due to the decline her Mental Health.
Meghan has attempted suicide on many occasions which has stopped other therapies coming in to play due to the abuse of medications previously. Meghan has been declined by Centrelink for disability payments. Centrelink advised this has been declined because of the inconsistent appointments from a psychiatrist and "unmedicated" diagnosis.
Meghan does not have access to the medications and has been refused ADHD medications. Meghan is a woman who lives with Autism Level 2, ADHD, Emotional Personality Disorder and severe mental health.

Meghan In December 2020 was living on the streets and was rejected assistance for accommodation resources as she was not assigned to a social worker or a mental health worker as she had no fixed address. Meghan was either to homeless or not homeless enough.

Meghan attempted suicide with overdosing her medications in December 2020.
Meghan was discharged from the mental health clinic after 3 days of admission 26/12/20. Meghan was homeless again. We at FFG, sourced accommodation through St Barts for Meghan to reside in with the assistance of Senior Recovery Coach on site to ensure Meghan could build her capacity with her mental health. Elanor was due for auditing and advised Meghan will not continue to live at St Barts as she is not eligible without the linking of a mental health officer. A referral was sent through two times to the clinic with two rejections with no communication.

Meghan applied for her disability payments in the year of 2020 and was recently declined by Centrelink for the reasons of unmedicated disabilities.
Meghan still currently has a mutual obligation of meeting appointments weekly with Status Employment Services. On the 1/10/21 Meghan had her payments suspended once again by Status Employment Services. After multiple conversations with Centrelink and the service provider. When I raised the concern today, this was the response I received below from an Area Manager. In previous conversations with this provider directly relaying with the manager of the Rockingham Status site (Mafa), It was advised Meghan is working towards and is currently studying to become a Personal Trainer. Meghan is studyin g full time and is meeting the Mutual Obligations. Meghan has passion in sport and wants to give back to her own community and show the gift of what sport can better the likes of mental and physical health. However she is only able to do this in certain environments where she is supported with her disability and sensory needs.

Today after being advised of the payment suspension, Meghan broke down, again. This resulted with Meghan unfortunately self-harming where she put her own head through a door and completely knocked herself unconscious. When advocating on the phone to this employment provider (STATUS) to advise once again of the severities of Meghan's disabilities, and why she cannot attend the appointments due to full time study, the area manager replies " I am happy to book an appointment for Meghan to attend site with her support worker at her convenience, if you could please advise of a suitable date and time and I will ensure this is booked in the system"

My question is to you, why? Where is the empathy? Is this the responses to other people in the community with disabilities? Do you really want to place Meghan, the general public and your staff at Status at risk of harm when Meghan is in this elevated state?
If this was your brother, sister, mother, father, cousin, aunty, would you do the same? Meghan has been meeting her Mutual Obligation by doing more than her benchmark hours require.
Meghan has fallen through the cracks of the complex system of the department of communities and this has failed her, once again. Meghan could have lost her life today as she went in complete shutdown.

It is out of sheer desperation on my part, that I email you today, to highlight this issue and implore you to use your position to ensure that this is investigated immediately before more people loose the battles of mental health and not only people with mental health but disabilities also.

Extremely disappointed in the employment provider system not taking into consideration people's mental health and service providers who have failed this human from sheer lack of uneducated background of the diversity of our people.

Thank you for your time and reading this email and I look forward to your response and intervention.

Good afternoon Meghan

As per the current DESE servicing expectations all appointments must be face to face. Please note that Status are requesting to sight evidence of Megan's full time study course, if you could please provide this so we can review. We are unable to update the job plan without this along with Meghan attending a face to face appointment

- The initial meeting conducted with Megan, Vida Reid and 2 Status staff members including the Rockingham Site Manager which went for over 2 hours which would have had the initial process explained in detail.
- Please note that a Status Employment staff member did not at any time during the servicing of Megan walk her down to Centrelink. The Rockingham centrelink office is located directly across the road from our Rockingham site.
- As advised previously by you on 13th September you were going to seek a medical exemption in the meantime. Can you please confirm if this has been followed up as the last medical exemption centrelink loaded expired on 23th August 2021.

I am happy to book an appointment for Meghan to attend site with her support worker at her convenience, if you could please advise of a suitable date and time and I will ensure this is booked in the system
I am available to discuss this further should you wish to on 040419771

Good Morning,

Due to no responses received despite multiple attempts by us reaching out to obtain assistance from Status Employment Services Rockingham regarding Meghan Goodwin, I can confirm Meghan is currently at her crisis accommodation with Senior Recovery Coach who has called an ambulance for urgent assistance.

This has occurred due to Meghan's payments being suspended again by Status employment services despite again multiple discussions and a promise made by Mafa appointed as a site manager by Status (Please see email trial below). Meghan is now literally pulling her hair out, self-harming and has locked herself in her bedroom screaming at the top of her lungs. Meghan right now is pushing through her study and doing everything she can to function despite her disabilities (Autism, adhd and emotional personality disorder).

Meghan's payments have just been suspended on multiple occasions to date, despite meeting the full mutual obligation as discussed, all evidence has been sent through to prove the full obligation she has and is working towards. When attempts were made by myself to resolve the matter in which I reached out and phoned Mafa at Status employment services, Mafa stopped me on the phone and stated it didn't matter, and Meghan was to attend appointments or payments will be suspended. This is a very uneducated and cold response whilst knowing the full background and history of this participant. We are not robots. Meghan is a human being. Some empathy and compassion would go a long way here.

Mafa attended Meghan and commenced her despite Meghan not wanting or agreeing to be commenced due to promises made by Mafa. Please see below email trail.
Not only this, Meghan was walked to Centrelink by a Status Employment Services Consultant previously to be "restreamed" and was added in the Centrelink data base as indigenous for star rating purposes. This is false and misleading information. Centrelink has been advised and since corrected this in their system after I brought it to their attention. This is alarming and concerning.

2 Autism and Emotional Personality Disorder with NO informal supports.
Meghan was declined DES services because of the inconsistency of psychiatrist appointments as the NDIS do not fund for these therapies, Meghan cannot afford them and Centrelink have requested this application be resubmitted. In the meantime, Centrelink advised Status as a PROVIDER, They can implement the study to meet her full mutual obligation as per the guidelines. You dismissed this, never responded to my emails or followed up

Sc contacted centrelink regarding payment suspension.
This has now been lifted and crisis exemption has been implemented for two weeks.
Meghan in this time smashed her head through her own bedroom door and was knocked unconscious. Meghan said her head was really sore and she fell asleep on the floor after she smashed her head through the door.
SC asked Meghan to sit down and stay sitting down and SC will call recovery coach to call the ambulance.

Ambulance attended and refused to take Meghan SC stated this must happen as a duty of care. Ambulance took Meghan and checked her in

No need to minimize the hours as Meghan will have a new plan shortly and I understand how important psychology is for her right now.

Good Morning,

I would like to advise, I have received a call from the NDIS who have now booked Meghan in for review via phone on the 5/10/21 at 12pm via phone.
In this meeting we will be pushing for supported independent living in hope for eligibility on housing solutions for Meghan with supports.

I have reached out to all main stream supports for reports to be finalised on time for this review taking place.
Regarding the SIL FCA, we will need this to be extremely detailed in how Meghan's disabilities affect her functionality daily.

Please break down this report with the amount of hours you recommend to advise the NDIS what supports must be put in place including the risks if this is not implemented in the next plan. We will require this report to be extremely detailed.
Can I please ask you send this report by COB 27/09/21 to ensure the report is completed with all correct information.

Elinor,

Any questions, don't hesitate to ask.

Good Afternoon,

I have called regarding Meghan Goodwin today for her full time study. I was advised on the phone, you are unable to code this through the system as this is on Centrelink's end to do so and Meghan is to attend face to face appointments as you on service face to face.

I have spoken with Centrelink who have advised me this is on the provider to code these exemptions through. I'm aware you are using ESS system for appointments and linking activities ect. Can I kindly ask you code this through the system to meet the mutual obligation of appointments and job seeking requirements for Meghan. As discussed she is unable to come to face to face appointments due to her obligations with study. Meghan is not able to negotiate her classes as it is mandatory for her to attend in hope she can qualify for the current course she is doing for a future full time position in employment. In the mean time I will source a medical exemption for the mean time.

I have also advised Centrelink of the wrongful information you have on your system regarding cultural background. Meghan stated she was advised by one of your staff members to change her culture background to indigenous and went to Centrelink with her to change this. This is incorrect information. Centrelink have now corrected this in the system, which has now been flagged as a major concern.

good evidence of maintaining and improving her mental and physical health, based on research and meghans self reporting

- Is not better funded by a different entity
- Meets all the requirements of section 34 of the act.

The argument stated on the website is that a gym membership is an everyday living expense. I refer to the decision by the AAT in Milburn vs the NDIA regarding this matter.
1. I have considered the provisions of the Supports Rules, in particular the rule that a support will not be funded if it relates to "day-to-day" living costs. I note the examples given of rent, groceries, and utility fees. While these are only examples, they are indicative of the costs of living which most members of the community incur in one form or another.
73. The same cannot be said of gym membership fees. While the Agency may be correct in saying that many people engage in fitness activities at a gym, it does not follow that the costs of gym membership "relates to day-to-day living costs". In my view, it is in the nature of discretionary spending for those who do not suffer from a disability. On the basis of Ms Curdie-Evans' evidence, I am satisfied that, in Ms Milburn's case, it is attributable to her support needs.
I understand that each AAT decision relates to the individual case, but in this case the statement above relates to a general statement about what pertains to everday living costs, and builds a case precedent for future challenges.
So as you can see here, just because something is on the ndis website as guideline, doesn't necessarily mean it is not a funded support, and so I make the argument that provider choice have a duty to consider the participants individual needs before deciding wether they can pay an invoice.
Secondly, from my understanding it us up to the participant to determine if something in flexible core spending is reasonable and necessary for their support needs and is in line with the plan goals and it is not the job of a plan manager to determine reasonable and necessary.
As to your request for the ndia to have this as a stated plan item or confirmation from the ndia, I do not think this is necessary, as this particular social participation is already stated in her plan goals as follows:
Flexible support to explore and participate in community based activities of interest and to develop, build and maintain friendships.

Good Afternoon,

Thank you for your prompt response, under the NDIS act this is not a requirement to purchase AT under $1500 for any form of equipment. Please see example below –

1. You can use your unspent core supports budget in your NDIS plan to flexibly purchase disability-related health supports, with the exception of Assistive Technology valued over $1500. Supports can only be purchased this way until you have a plan review. At your plan review, you will discuss your needs and if reasonable and necessary, funds for disability-related health supports will be included in your plan.

Look forward your response.

Good Afternoon,

I have received an email from Meghan regarding a S100 review, that I apparently submitted. Can I please be advised on who submitted this S100 as I DID NOT submit, neither did i gain any confirmation that this was completed or even sent to the NDIS for a review. This new plan is for the dates of 19/05/21 – 19/05/22.

I would also like to advise, I'm Meghan's Support Coordinator and attended the Planning Review that was conducted by Robyn at Rockingham NDIS office. All consents have been sent to the NDIS. Please see attached consents that I have sent through previously.

Can I kindly request a copy of the S100 that was submitted? The only request I have put through is for a light touch for the NDIA managed funding in the support coordination to be changed to plan managed as we are unable to bill for the supports we put in place for Meghan. This was a request from the participant and myself in the planning review.

Thank you.

This is the plan that I have but the dates NDIS have in Proda are 26/05/2021 - 26/05/2022 so I'm not able to pay anything prior to these dates. I'm not sure why the plan dates are different. I'll see what I can get out of NDIS in regards to it.

Good Morning,

Thank you for taking my call today. I would like to advise Meghan has cancelled services for support workers today due to he Dog who currently is not doing well with cancer. Meghan does not have the money to get assistance from the VET and is not in a good way. As discussed, Meghan has autism and struggles with any form of interaction in public spaces. Today is worse than any other day for Meghan.

Tuesday 25/05/21 Myself and Meghan attended a doctors practice to gain exemption, please see attached.
This was also sent to CL manager located at Armadale Branch to submit the exemption. This is yet to be completed.

Meghan has an appointment today, please can you kindly attend as DNAV as exemption. Can I also kindly request correspondence when this is completed.
Meghan is not in a good state of mind and may put herself and others at risk if she is to attend any appointments.

Thank you,

Hi Robyn,

We have received Meghan's updated NDIS plan. Unfortunately, no recovery coaching has been implemented neither accommodation options. Meghan has sever mental health, and is located in short term accommodation which will be shortly coming to an end. This leaves Meghan homeless.
Support coordination has been implemented, but is NDIA managed. We cannot service Meghan due to this. This puts Meghan Goodwin at risk due to no services being able to be offered.

As a duty of care, I will do my best to have this changed asap, can I please gain assistance in this being changed with a s100 being lodged.
Your assistance is highly appreciated,
